

Under the Sea Acrostic Poem

U nderneath the sunlight zone

N ever-ending blue

D olphins splashing above me

xcited fish darting through the deep

R
uthless sharks ready for the kill!

T
urtles floating happily beside me

H
ermit crabs lining up for a new home

lectric eels light up the dark

quid squirting ink- so annoying!

very type of creature is here

A s always home is buzzing!
